

RACE AGAINST THE CLOCK FOR MISSING 'CHRISTMAS ANGEL'
- massive search backed by £3,000 reward

An unprecedented 'dog hunt' is currently underway across the UK, Ireland and Europe in a desperate bid to return a missing 'Christmas Angel' to her rightful owner.

Nearly 3,000 members of the canine community from across the UK and Europe are working together to try and find 'Angel' a German Shorthaired Pointer who went missing on the 6th December in the Barugh Green area of Barnsley, South Yorkshire.

In an unprecedented joint action virtually every veterinary surgeon, gamekeeper, beater, dog warden, parish and local council and neighbourhood watch coordinator in the country has received an email of Angel's missing poster (copy attached).

A further 5000 posters have been sent to local communities or pinned up on lampposts, fences, gates and local notice boards across England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, even reaching the smaller outlying islands. This massive search operation has been backed by adverts in local and national newspapers, country based magazines and free ads.

£3000 has already been raised for the 'Find Missing Angel Fund' as a reward for Angel's safe return.

A Facebook page has been opened to allow members of the public to post sightings (www.facebook.com/FindMissingAngel) while a closed page is being used to allow the army of 'Angel' seekers to keep in touch and coordinate the search, minute by minute, hour by hour.

#findmissingangel has been trending on Twitter and thousands of people including national and international celebrities have retweeted including Claire Balding, Robbie Fowler, David Weir (paralympian), Abbey Clancy and Alan Carr who has over 3 million of his own followers! Each of these re tweets have been re tweeted again by many followers, in fact the retweets number in the millions!
